Hear Anna speak about her new book,

‘JUST DON’T CALL ME MA’AM’

It’s a hilarious, truthful take about one woman and the choices that add up to Twenty something life.

Detailing impulsive moves to new cities, domestic disasters and the occasional nervous breakdown.

Anna’s book is for every woman who has woken up one day and wondered how she ended up smack dab in the middle of a life she doesn’t exactly recognize. Anna is a Southern girl who sets out to find a new home – and instead finds herself. It’s a humorous and candid account about growing up and a tale every woman will see part of themselves. Great reading for Twenty – Thirty year olds, daughters, daughter’s in-law and grandmothers!
